ACCOUNTANCY SERVICES :

In these dynamic times many companies outsource their accounting department and focus only on the core competencies. S&Co provides accounting and bookkeeping services to such clients. Monthly ledgers and trial balance are prepared which translates into quarterly and annual accounts (financial statements). This means the firm, tracks your revenues and expenses, and provides consulting on your business's overall financial health.

The firm helps the client with working capital management, such as buying asset, investing in stock. It can also help determine how to break even and recognize the client's cash-flow needs. These services help in the decision making and the long-term growth of the company. All these financials are prepared by our team of CA, ACCA, ICMA, and MBA. Utmost care is taken to prevent any contravention of statutory requirements and IFRS.
